TANGLED SITUATION.

THE FUTURE IS ALL AT SEA.

It is Utterly Impossible to Tell What May Be Looked For Next—The Compromise Measure Not Entirely Given Up—The Situation Stood Up By a Washington Paper.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—The situation in the senate has now become more tangled than it has ever been since the beginning of the session, says a morning paper. It is utterly impossible to tell what may be looked for next. The so-called German compromise, which was expected to harmonize all Democratic differences and lead to a speedy solution of the difficulty, struck a rock and seems to be a complete wreck, though all hope of getting it into port has not been abandoned.

The record against it was presented in the senate yesterday, and the result was a vote of 18 to 17 in favor of it. It was given out that this caucus committee compromise was accepted by the senate yesterday, and it was with that understanding that administration senators gave their names to a petition assailing the chairman of the finance committee, Senator Voorhees, to submit the compromise in the senate in the form of an amendment to the bill.

Several senators withdrew their signatures until they were assured by the majority having the matter in charge that it would meet with the approval of the president and that the administration would be, in fact, very well satisfied with it, and would accept it as the best obtainable under the present condition of affairs.

These senators were very much surprised to find that the administration had never given any sort of an approval to the scheme and would not do so under any circumstances, but was as unalterably opposed to compromise of all kinds as on the first day congress met. They declared that they had been made the victims of misrepresentation and several of them withdrew their names from the petition, claiming that they had put their names there with the express understanding that the administration would be satisfied with the proposed measure if it did not, in fact, desire it.

THREE DAYS WITHOUT WATER.

Terrible Suffering of Two Men in a Western Desert.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Oct. 25.—Yesterday brought news that John Palmer, a young miner, and Conrad Limerick, an old German, were rescued on a desert between here and Yuma. On Oct. 10, by Joseph A. Allison and T. St. Silvestre, the two men were rescued after a journey of nearly three weeks of hardship. Neither of the men was able to travel, and took leave of the rescuers with a tearful goodbye. When found, Palmer had been without water for three days. He had dug a well six feet deep for water, but without success, and crazed with thirst he had lain down to die. His companion, who had suffered from the same lack, had crawled under a mesquite bush and recovered strength sufficient to get up and walk. He had been back over the trail to a spring pool, where he had remained in reach of water. The men are now fast recovering.

Preparing for the End.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—The council of administration has ordered the director of Amusement to carry out the plan for the celebration next Saturday and Sunday, and to prepare a program for the closing day.

The closing day program is expected to be the complement of the opening day exercises in several ways. One of the features will be a spectacular reproduction on a large scale of the landing of Columbus. This scene will be enacted on the lake, front with the carvings included on shore. At least all the flags on all the buildings will be furled—the signal that the fair is closed, just as the white flag was the signal on May 1 that the exposition was formally opened. The grounds and buildings will be kept open until midnight, Oct. 30, and informal exercises will be held the following morning.

Madis Still Live.

New York, Oct. 25.—The investigation of the police into the shooting of David Bolton, Sunday night, by a man in an ambush, brought out the fact that there is a branch of the Mafia at New York. There are 45 members in the order. The man who shot at Bolton was proved to be a Greek, whose true name is Pedro Pincio, one of the leaders of the Mafia. The citizens of New York say their lives have been threatened on several occasions by the members of the Mafia, and that they have to go armed to protect themselves. Bolton was evidently taken for some one else by Pincio, when he was shot at.

Michigan Women Can Not Vote.

LANSING, Mich., Oct. 25.—The act of the last legislature permitting women to vote at municipal elections was declared unconstitutional by the supreme court. The petition of Philip M. Coffin, for a mandamus requiring boards of registration to receive and register the names of women as electors, was denied, while that of Edward H. Kennedy and Henry S. Potter, for mandamus to prevent such registration, was granted. This will prevent women taking part in the election Nov. 7 next.

No Trouble With Hayard.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—At the American embassy here the report published in morning papers that Sir John Hayard, secretary of the embassy, would not return to his position in London, is denied. The story, which says that Sir John would not return here from the United States on account of strained circumstances between himself and Ambassador Bayard, is entirely unfounded.

Pudders Strike.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 25.—The puddlers at the Park house mill of the Pittsburgh Forge and Iron company struck yesterday for recognition of the scale of material, and the signing of the scale. About 200 men are out.

NOW IN JAIL.

A Brace of Noted Criminals Captured at Brazil, Ind.

BRAZIL, Ind., Oct. 25.—The police have discovered that in the capture of John and Jack Hines, arrested a few days ago just east of here for stealing a team of horses, a wagon and 20 bushels of wheat from farmers between here and Indianapolis, they have secured much-wanted criminals.

Nineteen years ago the Hines lived at Knightsville, this county, and were sent to prison for robbing a store. While acting as "trusties" they escaped from the prison south. Afterward John Hines was arrested for the murder of a man in Greene county and he was sentenced for 15 years, but again escaped. A few years afterward he was arrested at Terre Haute for counterfeiting and was sentenced to the penitentiary. Jack Hines was arrested at several times in the past.

The police have secured evidence showing that Jack Hines, assisted by a Brazil crook, robbed the postoffice at Knightsville a few months ago, and a few nights later he almost killed Fred Boyer, a Harmony school teacher, by chloroforming him while he was asleep and robbing the school. The bodies are now being examined by a coroner's jury. Hines was arrested at different parts of the state where he was wanted for various crimes. He is now in the jail at Brazil, and an effort is being made to secure the trial.

THE OUTCOME IN DOUBT.

The Midland Railway Still Blocked by Employees.

LEAMINGTON, Ind., Oct. 25.—The strike on the Chicago and Southwestern, between here and the Midland railway, has not yet been adjusted. The section men and shopmen on the West End refuse to allow the trains to run over the line until they receive their pay. They are determined to prevent the road from operating until they receive their pay. The road, they claim, owes them for two or three months wages. They will not promise except a full payment will be made.

Through all who have stood by the road through all its troubles, the road is now in a state of financial collapse. The strike, they say, has been a great blow to the road, and they are determined to prevent the road from operating until they receive their pay. The road, they claim, owes them for two or three months wages. They will not promise except a full payment will be made.

Second Trial of a Murder Case.

SPRINGFIELD, Ind., Oct. 25.—The second trial of the state of Indiana against Charles E. Johnson came up for hearing in the Gibson circuit court yesterday. Johnson is charged with the murder in the first degree of the body of Jacob Apple in a clubhouse in the city of Evansville about one year ago.

The trial was held in the morning, and the jury heard the testimony of the witnesses. The case is expected to be a long one, and the jury will be in session for several days. The case is expected to be a long one, and the jury will be in session for several days.

A Flood of Financial Bills.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Senator Sherman told an Associated Press reporter that he was contemplating the introduction of a bill to provide for the redemption of a bond bill and that it would probably be introduced in the next few days.

The bill is expected to be a long one, and the jury will be in session for several days. The case is expected to be a long one, and the jury will be in session for several days.

Drown and White Duck Hunting.

BREMEN, Ind., Oct. 25.—George W. Loney, a prominent farmer, residing near this city, went to Wood Lake in company with his brother-in-law, John Snyder, to shoot wild ducks, and in attempting to launch the boat, Loney accidentally fell into the water and was drowned. It was several hours before his body was recovered. Loney's sudden death was a shock to the entire neighborhood.

The Fight is Probably On.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—The World says: Charles Mitchell has been training and W. A. Brady, acting for Corbett, has declined the Bolingbroke clubber of $12,000 for the big fight in London. Both principals have the Coney Island club will take care of them so far as the expenses already incurred are concerned.

Town Burning.

VENICE, Oct. 25.—The Pastor-Lloyd advises that the crown prince of Gori, a town of Russia, in Trans-Caucasia, have been burning since Thursday. The flames have spread to millions of houses and several persons have perished.

Closed by Creditors.

LAGANES, Ind., Oct. 25.—Messrs. J. and T. Truesdale, a leading mercantile firm at Shipshewer, made an assignment to local creditors on Monday.

Two Men Fined.

BANKRUPTCY IN GREAT BRITAIN.

A Most Discouraging Condition of the Finance of the Country.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—Under the caption, "Half a Year Nearer Bankruptcy," The Weekly Times and Echo of this city, in the leading editorial of its current issue, declares that the current issue of the country is on the verge of national bankruptcy. Starting out with the statement that the country is on the verge of bankruptcy, the editorial goes on to state that the country is on the verge of bankruptcy.

CONSPIRACY CHARGED.

A Missouri Court Enjoins Sixty-Five Persons.

MACON, Mo., Oct. 25.—Judge Ellison, at Kirksville, Mo., has granted temporary injunctions against some 65 persons, including the striking miners' committee, leaders of the strike, the city marshal of Beaver, President Walters of the miners' union and their agents and attorneys, restraining them from entering upon the lands and property of the Kansas and Texas Coal company at Beaver and Ardmore. The Kansas and Texas company is seeking the order charged conspiracy to intimidate their workmen and to compel that their property is in danger from the strikers. The question of making the injunction permanent will come up later. Yesterday morning United States Marshal Buchanan from St. Louis arrested 14 of the strike leaders at Beaver for interfering with Loomis & Company's coal plant which is in the hands of a United States court receiver. The prisoners were taken to Hannibal. The miners will fight both cases to the end.

The survivors of the gallant 150th Ohio Infantry Volunteers are holding their ninth annual reunion in Lima to-day. These patriotic old veterans are welcome among us.

The veterans of the 150th O. V. I. who are to-day holding their ninth annual reunion in this city should read a Congressional Yuletide letter which is published in this edition of THE TIMES-DEMOCRAT.

One labor union amalgamated association, or trades assembly, has done more to raise wages than all the so-called protection the Republican party could give," said Larry T. Neal, at Alliance, in his speech there, October 17. If you believe in it and in a man who has the courage to stand up and say it for you, vote the Democratic ticket.

Doris Mary Jane Sanford, the political apostle of the Republican party in Allen county, and who between battles in Frederick's barn, jobs down the matter which fills the columns of the Lima Republican-Gazette expect the intelligent people of this county to swallow all the rot that is given publicity now concerning the matter of taxation? If he does he certainly counts without his host. The people of Allen county are intelligent, and know full well that no tax is imposed in any county in Ohio for the payment of the salaries of the County Clerk, the Probate Judge, the Auditor, the Recorder, or the Sheriff. In each of these offices the compensation comes in the shape of fees paid by persons who transact business in them. If a man uses or is used or is involved in other litigation in Common Pleas Court he pays his costs into that court, and from there the Clerk and Sheriff get their fees. If a man is married, makes an assignment, is made executor or assignee or is interested in the settlement of some estate, or transacts other business in the Probate Court he pays his costs, and from that court the compensation comes that reimburses the Probate Judge. If a man buys or sells real estate, puts a mortgage on his property, or has a lease recorded he pays fees into the Recorder's office and from that source comes the compensation of the Recorder. If a person has no business relations with these officials no matter how much tax he pays, no portion of it goes into the salaries for they do not come out of the revenue raised by the collection of tax upon the general duplicate. It is a species of dishonesty that the Republican press is adept in that would assert that the people are taxed for raising money to pay officials whose salaries are derived solely from fees collected under a schedule established by the laws of Ohio. The statements made by the Rep. Gaz. concerning this subject are wholly and deliberately false, and the publishers of that paper are fully aware of it.

Major McKinley, will you answer these very pertinent queries?

When you entered your Congressional career, after begging salaries voted as you are still doing and being elected by them, you found W. H. Wright, an individual soldier, and an honest, upright and popular gentleman, serving as postmaster at Leontia, Ohio.

You summarily removed him without cause.

You removed him against the earnest protest of the patrons of the office.

You removed him to install your political henchman, M. E. Taggart, who has never been a soldier and whose moral record was so unsavory that he was reprimanded and defeated by your own party for prosecuting a corner in a town having 2,000 Republican majority.

Why did you do this?

Now try this one.

In 1892 you positively promised John F. Egan, an aged poor and disabled Mexican war soldier that you would elect him to the office.

When your name was called in the House on March 1, 1894 you kept your promise by voting squarely against the bill.

Why was this done?

EXPLAINS THIS PASS ONE.

On February 4, 1891 you told soldiers (read it) INTRODUCED a bill repealing the laws of pension for

ONE MORE TRIAL.

Why on April 21 did you dubiously dodge the vote to repeal the granting of pensions?

You can't tell these things to my Major the full history of all cases is recorded in the files of the St. Louis Republican. Buckeye State Alliance has and many other Republican papers.

The Republican Committee and press freely indulge in the charge of high and extravagant fees and salaries of our county officers and send broadsheet printed statements with out explanation and calculated only to deceive as the amounts reported for the various offices contain not only fees received but fees due and unpaid which much of the latter class have been years accumulating and some will never be paid. Then, too, all of our county officers are required to pay their own clerk hire out of the fees or salaries received by the principal. Thus it will be seen that the receipts are much less than the amounts given by the opposition, and if, under the present laws, officers' fees and salaries are excessive, the fault is chargeable directly to the Republican party. The Democratic legislature on May 18, 1891 passed what is known as the Gibbs law with a fixed duty for all county officers which would materially reduce the amounts received by each, but the Republican legislature on April 13, 1892 repealed said law and in so far as it applied to the county Sheriffs of the State, and on March 22, 1893, repealed said Gibbs law in so far as it applied to all the other county officers of the State, thus completely wiping it from the statute books and restoring the old law of fees and salaries. Thus it is clearly seen that the Republican party is solely responsible for whatever evils in this direction it has existed. Nor is it reasonable to suppose that if a Republican were elected to county office in this or any other county in the State that he would take less in the way of fees than the statute allows.

McKinley loves workingmen (N. Y. on election day.) When he wanted a recommitment in 1892, the powers of East Liverpool were needed at the primaries, and he, by personal effort and specious promises, secured their

Senator Allen's Almost Incredible Power of Endurance—Dramatic Exhibition of Passion and Force—Frenzied Scenes That Rang in the Balance.

(Special Correspondence.)
When on Oct. 22, 1893, one would have been surprised if there had been a fight between the two senators. The fight between the two senators was a physical and mental one. The fight between the two senators was a physical and mental one.

Without a doubt, the fight between the two senators was a physical and mental one. The fight between the two senators was a physical and mental one.

Young Lanyon, the midshipman who went down with Admiral Tryon on the Victoria was a sentimentalist. You had better jump over the admiral to the victor.

I rather stay with you "was the midshipman's reply.

The boy's loyalty to the admiral was pathetic, but it was a bit of a display of affection. The admiral was right.

He thought to have jumped and made a desperate effort to save his life. The admiral had weighty reasons for preferring to stay at his post. The midshipman's life was being away from sheer excess of sentiment.

Equally wasteful and ungrateful was the action of a New York Journal, who, having been a friend of the admiral, had been a friend of the admiral.

Another workman in Brooklyn played a better part. A cry of "Horse run away!" was raised when he was chasing with a friend. A frightened horse was tearing up the street with a wagon behind him, but no driver. Directly in his track was a baby carriage with a sleeping child. The horse, who had been frightened by the outcries of bystanders and dashing her charge had led to the sidewalk.

The man who did not hesitate spring forward, he caught the animal by the bridle and stopped the horse before it could reach the child's life. The horse, who had been frightened by the outcries of bystanders and dashing her charge had led to the sidewalk.

This workman had a wife and children dependent upon him. He understood the most hazardous feat in athletic man, stop the horse by the bridle in front of the baby carriage. But although he lost his life, he brought down the horse and saved the child's life. The man who did not hesitate spring forward, he caught the animal by the bridle and stopped the horse before it could reach the child's life.

Senator Allen's Almost Incredible Power of Endurance—Dramatic Exhibition of Passion and Force—Frenzied Scenes That Rang in the Balance.

(Special Correspondence.)
When on Oct. 22, 1893, one would have been surprised if there had been a fight between the two senators. The fight between the two senators was a physical and mental one. The fight between the two senators was a physical and mental one.

Without a doubt, the fight between the two senators was a physical and mental one. The fight between the two senators was a physical and mental one.

Young Lanyon, the midshipman who went down with Admiral Tryon on the Victoria was a sentimentalist. You had better jump over the admiral to the victor.

I rather stay with you "was the midshipman's reply.

The boy's loyalty to the admiral was pathetic, but it was a bit of a display of affection. The admiral was right.

He thought to have jumped and made a desperate effort to save his life. The admiral had weighty reasons for preferring to stay at his post. The midshipman's life was being away from sheer excess of sentiment.

Equally wasteful and ungrateful was the action of a New York Journal, who, having been a friend of the admiral, had been a friend of the admiral.

Another workman in Brooklyn played a better part. A cry of "Horse run away!" was raised when he was chasing with a friend. A frightened horse was tearing up the street with a wagon behind him, but no driver. Directly in his track was a baby carriage with a sleeping child. The horse, who had been frightened by the outcries of bystanders and dashing her charge had led to the sidewalk.

The man who did not hesitate spring forward, he caught the animal by the bridle and stopped the horse before it could reach the child's life. The horse, who had been frightened by the outcries of bystanders and dashing her charge had led to the sidewalk.

This workman had a wife and children dependent upon him. He understood the most hazardous feat in athletic man, stop the horse by the bridle in front of the baby carriage. But although he lost his life, he brought down the horse and saved the child's life. The man who did not hesitate spring forward, he caught the animal by the bridle and stopped the horse before it could reach the child's life.

Why on April 21 did you dubiously dodge the vote to repeal the granting of pensions?

You can't tell these things to my Major the full history of all cases is recorded in the files of the St. Louis Republican. Buckeye State Alliance has and many other Republican papers.

The Republican Committee and press freely indulge in the charge of high and extravagant fees and salaries of our county officers and send broadsheet printed statements with out explanation and calculated only to deceive as the amounts reported for the various offices contain not only fees received but fees due and unpaid which much of the latter class have been years accumulating and some will never be paid. Then, too, all of our county officers are required to pay their own clerk hire out of the fees or salaries received by the principal. Thus it will be seen that the receipts are much less than the amounts given by the opposition, and if, under the present laws, officers' fees and salaries are excessive, the fault is chargeable directly to the Republican party. The Democratic legislature on May 18, 1891 passed what is known as the Gibbs law with a fixed duty for all county officers which would materially reduce the amounts received by each, but the Republican legislature on April 13, 1892 repealed said law and in so far as it applied to the county Sheriffs of the State, and on March 22, 1893, repealed said Gibbs law in so far as it applied to all the other county officers of the State, thus completely wiping it from the statute books and restoring the old law of fees and salaries. Thus it is clearly seen that the Republican party is solely responsible for whatever evils in this direction it has existed. Nor is it reasonable to suppose that if a Republican were elected to county office in this or any other county in the State that he would take less in the way of fees than the statute allows.

White Lead is best for painting. It will not scale, chip, or rub off, it firmly adheres to the wood and forms a permanent base for repainting. Paints which peel or scale have to be removed by scraping or burning before satisfactory repainting can be done. When buying it is important to obtain the best.

Y. M. C. A. Star Course.

There seems to be a mistaken impression abroad as to the relative proportion of lectures and concerts in the course this year. It is the same as last year—two of each. The Jesse Conthout Company entertainment will be largely readings of the highest character by Miss Conthout, who read at the opening of the World's Fair and who stands at the head of her line.

The course is undoubtedly the best presented in our city and merits full support.

Injunction Dissolved.

An order was issued yesterday by Judge Ricks, at Toledo, dissolving the injunction in the case of the L. E. & W. company against the trustees of Butler township, Mercer county. The injunction was intended to prevent the township trustees from interfering with certain property which had been conditionally donated to the railroad company.

BETRAYED

By a Piece of Flannel From a Woman's Skirt.

Charles Schiller, formerly of Lima, figures in a sensation at St. Marys.

The St. Marys Argus contains the following regarding Charles Schiller, a young married man, who formerly lived in this city:

Charles Schiller is a young man, aged probably 22 years, rather good looking, a good dresser and, until a year or so ago he was a good, honorable young man. A short time ago he moved, with his wife and child, to this place, Mrs. Schiller being a daughter of Samuel Longworth, who lives four miles east of St. Marys. She is a woman of good character and reputation, and those best acquainted with her domestic life say she has always done her part towards making the living and getting along well. Charles also did all that could be expected of him until, as stated above, a year or so since, when he seemed to lose respect and consideration for his wife and began to flirt with other wives and women. A year ago his name was connected with a sensational episode at Lima and Mrs. Schiller claims to have in her possession at this time the affidavits of two persons to prove that the charge she made against him at that time was true. The matter was hushed up, however, and Mr. and Mrs. Schiller continued their relations as husband and wife as usual. Last spring Schiller left his wife and children and went to board at the Main Street House. He wore good clothes as usual, smoked good cigars and rode a bicycle, while Mrs. Schiller kept boarders and washed clothes for a living for herself and child. Finally Charles got out of work and couldn't pay his board, so he went back to his good wife and pleaded to be taken home again—to eat. She took him on promise that he would become and remain a true husband. He kept the promise for a few, possibly a week, and then it was

THE OLD STORY AGAIN.

The wife of course upbraided him as she had a right to do, they quarreled as a natural consequence, and when he returned home last Friday morning with a piece of flannel which Mrs. Schiller identified as a section of a neighbor woman's old skirt wrapped around his sprained knee, the old quarrel was renewed with increased vigor. Charles became furious with rage, broke several chairs and the large glass in the door, and threatened to kill his wife. He advanced upon her with a chair and she raised a whipstock to defend herself. Marshal Culliton was sent for and he went up and placed Schiller under arrest. He was placed in the city hotel until evening, and Mrs. Schiller in the meantime filed an affidavit in the mayor's court charging him with threatening to destroy her life and property. The case was heard Saturday morning, J. T. Schenover appearing for the plaintiff and J. H. Goeke for the defendant. Mrs. Schiller proved by her own testimony and that of two other witnesses that her husband had threatened her life on several occasions, and he was therefore bound over to the next term of common pleas court under a bond of $500.

Schiller has since been released from jail on a bond of $300 signed by J. H. Goeke and John Plennig, Judge Lutz reducing the bond to the above sum.

GAVE THEM THE SLIP.

The Troy Horse Thief Captured at Mansfield.

The identity of the fellow who gave his name as Smith, of Lima, at Troy and who hired a horse and buggy at that place and made away with it, has been established. His name is Rosenberger and his home is in Cridersville. A telegram was received by the authorities here today requesting them to be on the lookout for him as he had been captured at Mansfield, but that he had given the officers the slip.

Rosenberger was in Cridersville the other day but the authorities there were afraid to arrest him. He is a Jew and is only about 22 years of age.

WENT THROUGH IT.

Thieves Robb a Store at West Minister.

Last evening a member of the firm of W. C. Lattin & Co., general merchants at West Minister, arrived here and consulted Detective Blaise in reference to the robbery of their store on last Monday night. An entrance was gained by cutting out one of the panels of the door. A lot of jewelry, currency, etc., to the value of about $50 was taken.

Last May the store was burglarized. It is thought that local talent is doing the work. Detective Blaise was asked to take the case but, owing to the serious illness of his daughter, refused the offer.

Tom Carroll's Happiness.

Thomas Carroll, of this city, and Miss Maggie Mulcahy, were married this morning at the home of the bride in Nevada. Mr. Carroll is a conductor in the C. & B. Mulcahy, of the P. & W. & C., and has a number of friends in Lima who will be glad to welcome her to their midst. They will visit in Fremont, after which they will return to Lima and go to housekeeping at 707 North Jackson street, where the groom has a home in readiness.

BOUND ABOUT.

City Solicitor J. W. Halfhill will act as Mayor during the absence of His Honor at the Fair. It is understood that should the chair sit James, he will be foolish enough to try to capture it permanently by laying his ropes to secure the Republican nomination for the office.

Senator Brice has made his arrangements to leave here to-night for Ohio, says a dispatch from Washington, to confer with Democratic managers in regard to the campaign and remain until after the election next month. The complications, however, which have arisen in connection with the pending fiscal legislation in the Senate make it imperative for himself, as well as all Democratic Senators to remain in Washington. If the repeal bill is disposed of this week he will leave at once for Columbus to confer with the campaign managers.

O. S. Brumback, well known in this city, has been made assignee of the Hotel Hamilton, at Toledo.

It is said by C. & E. trainmen that the meanest people in America live at the Cliff, a little station just west of Marion. One man says they will not give or sell a railroad man anything. They are so mean that they take their pump handles at night and hide them so railroaders can't get a drink of water. They are evidently afraid somebody will steal their wells.

The C. & H. D. ran a special train from Sidney to Lima last night, the occasion being a speech by Hon. Larry T. Naylor, at Lima, and a train comprised of four coaches, all of which were packed. Conductor Rittler had charge of the train.

OLD SOLDIERS.

Here are some facts concerning Pension Suspensions, which Show Democrats to be Your Friend and Republicans to be Your Enemies—

Republican Boards Have Tipped Old Soldiers From the Pension Lists but Democratic Boards Restored Them.

The following letter from Ex-Congressman Yoder will be interesting reading to the many old soldiers in Allen county and throughout this district, who are concerned in the matter of pension suspensions, about which so much has been said within the past four months. The facts contained in this letter show conclusively that it is the Republicans who are responsible for the suspensions, while the restorations have been made by the Democratic board:

I have carefully examined 12,120 pension claims in the Pension Bureau, that had been suspended pursuant to orders of May 27, 1893, and had been re-examined by a board especially constituted by the commissioners of pension for the purpose of reviewing the claims suspended by the board of nine members, of which were Republicans, while the rest of the board was under the supervision of Mr. Yantch, a staunch Democrat. I made the astonishing discovery that while the former, or Republican board, as it would or should be called, suspended these 12,120 claims, the latter, or Democratic board, when examining the claims in these claims, absolutely and unconditionally restored at former rate 3,483 and restored at a slightly reduced rate 1,900, and 188 continued to renewal under old law 1,857 were not to be re-examined and 2,744 are not yet examined or completed. This shows that out of the whole number of claims suspended by Republican board only 15 per cent. were dropped by the Democratic board.

I then selected 300 claims dropped and examined the cause stated why dropped, and drew out six slips as fair samples, just as it happened without selecting any particular claim, with the following result:

Claim 1—Pensioned May 9th, 1891, at $8 a month for rheumatism and muscular poisoning.

OLD SOLDIERS.

Here are some facts concerning Pension Suspensions, which Show Democrats to be Your Friend and Republicans to be Your Enemies—

The following letter from Ex-Congressman Yoder will be interesting reading to the many old soldiers in Allen county and throughout this district, who are concerned in the matter of pension suspensions, about which so much has been said within the past four months. The facts contained in this letter show conclusively that it is the Republicans who are responsible for the suspensions, while the restorations have been made by the Democratic board:

I have carefully examined 12,120 pension claims in the Pension Bureau, that had been suspended pursuant to orders of May 27, 1893, and had been re-examined by a board especially constituted by the commissioners of pension for the purpose of reviewing the claims suspended by the board of nine members, of which were Republicans, while the rest of the board was under the supervision of Mr. Yantch, a staunch Democrat. I made the astonishing discovery that while the former, or Republican board, as it would or should be called, suspended these 12,120 claims, the latter, or Democratic board, when examining the claims in these claims, absolutely and unconditionally restored at former rate 3,483 and restored at a slightly reduced rate 1,900, and 188 continued to renewal under old law 1,857 were not to be re-examined and 2,744 are not yet examined or completed. This shows that out of the whole number of claims suspended by Republican board only 15 per cent. were dropped by the Democratic board.

I then selected 300 claims dropped and examined the cause stated why dropped, and drew out six slips as fair samples, just as it happened without selecting any particular claim, with the following result:

Claim 1—Pensioned May 9th, 1891, at $8 a month for rheumatism and muscular poisoning.

He was suspended on complaint and ordered before a Republican board of examining surgeons who reported: "After a thorough examination, we find no disability existing."

Claim 11—Geo. Robinson, certificate No. 580,258, pri. company C, 37 U. S. V., 11th Regt., Nov.-Dec. 1, 1893, at $6 for rheumatism.

Board of surgeons (Republicans) who examined him Feb. 1st, 1894, reported: "No disability found to exist other than partial loss of teeth."

Claim 11—Ohio Vol. Infantry, Pensioned January 5th, 1891, at $10 per month for rheumatism and impaired vision.

On January 13th, 1893, he was given a careful examination by a Republican board of surgeons who reported: "No sign of rheumatism, no disability found."

Claim 12—Pensioned December 2, 1891, at $12 per month for injury to left hip, disease of nervous system and rheumatism.

Examined by Republican board August 30th, 1892, report: "No symptoms of rheumatism. General appearance of good health."

These are fair samples of the 15 per cent. of suspended cases who were finally dropped on the report of Republican examining boards of surgeons.

Now from the record as I find that even claim out of these 1,776 dropped but of 12,120 suspended claims, every one was deprived of his pension on the report made to the pension bureau by Republican boards of examining surgeons. These Republican boards either misrepresented the disability of the soldier or he was plainly not entitled to a pension.

Not one claim out of the 1,776 that were dropped, according to the certificates of these Republican boards, has even a shadow of a claim and clearly should be dropped from the roll.

Respectfully,
S. S. Yoder.

A NEW ENTERPRISE.

The Northwestern Ohio Stock Sale Company.

This is the title given to the gentlemen who have banded themselves together for the advancement, growth and development of Lima and Allen county. The stock sales, which have been in operation in London, Lancaster, Washington C. H. and other places, have proven to be of vast benefit to the community. The stock sales, which have been in operation in London, Lancaster, Washington C. H. and other places, have proven to be of vast benefit to the community. The stock sales, which have been in operation in London, Lancaster, Washington C. H. and other places, have proven to be of vast benefit to the community.

They are the means of bringing thousands of people to these places who would not otherwise come. People who come to buy or sell as a rule, spent a portion of their ready cash in various ways. Some will patronize the restaurants, saloons, clothing stores, boot and shoe stores, hotels, livery barns, banks, hardware stores, lumber yards, etc., and all will have to eat, thereby leaving money in Lima and Allen county that would not have been left in any other way.

The great trunk lines entering our county and city, will profit because stock raisers will ship stock of all kinds to and from Citizens of Lima and Allen county; this enterprise is worthy of your hearty support and encouragement. If you have the pride of country and county at heart, and the advancement of your homes encourage and assist the Northwestern Ohio Stock Sale Co. to build and establish an institution that everyone in future days shall be proud of.

But in mind these monthly sales commenced on Wednesday, November 1, 1893, on the Ohio Ashton farm on the Cairo road, one-half mile north of Lima, O., and will continue to be held on the first Wednesday of each month following.

Yours very truly,
THE NORTHWESTERN STOCK SALE CO.,
Lima, O.

The Northwestern Stock Sale Co. has already 27 entries on their books of cattle, hogs, sheep and other stock, besides an unlimited amount of farm produce, implements, chattel goods, etc., for sale at their auction mart on Wednesday, November 1st, 1893, thereby proving that these stock sales, in their infancy, are approved of by the masses.

Lima, O., Nov. 20th, 1893. H.
